

Melbourne Seminar with Marion Knell

Caring for Your Missionaries

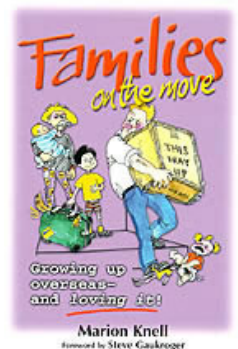

An overview of care through pre-field, on-field, home assignment and re-entry

Marion Knell lectures internationally on the subject of raising families overseas and on cross-cultural transition, adjustment and re-entry.

In 2002 Marion's first book, 'Families on the Move – Growing up overseas and loving it', addressing cross-cultural parenting, was published.

Her second book, 'Burn-up or Splash Down – the survival guide to re-entry', focusing on re-entry issues for adults and teenagers, was published in May 2007.
