

Rooted

"...and I pray that you,
being rooted in love,
may have power..."

Ephesians 3:16-19

Join us for some FUN, FELLOWSHIP, and GROWTH.

You are invited to join with other teens as we look into what it means to be ROOTED in a seemingly rootless environment.

2011

Rooted

is a conference to bring teens together from the arab world whose families live and work here for the glory of Christ. We want to encourage you to come and participate in community with teens from similar lifestyles who understand the benefits and challenges of living in a country other than their parents home countries and who desire to grow in Christ. It will be a conference of interactive seminars, worship, devotion, and fun!

About Our Speaker

Nate Bramsen was born and raised in Senegal, West Africa where he spent the first 16 years of his life. After graduating from North Greenville University with a degree in Business and Broadcasting, he headed to the Middle East to work with street children and kids in vulnerable communities. In December of 2006, he founded a non-profit organization, ROCK International (an acronym for Relief, Opportunity, and Care for Kids). Additionally, he is involved with international youth and is driven by his passion for true discipleship. Over the past ten years, he has called numerous locations "home" such as Egypt, Cyprus, and the USA. On the side, he is a swim coach and loves high-adrenaline activities such as skydiving, bungee jumping, and scuba.
