

Trauma Debriefing Workshop

Dr. Debbie Lovell-Hawker, Ph.D, D.Clin. Psy.

In a time of turbulent and rapid changes in this region, many workers face stresses, traumatic events and uncertainty. Training in dealing with the results of such situations is a key need for us as Member Care providers.

This is called “debriefing”. However, what exactly is debriefing? Are there different types? Which skills are needed to do it well? How does it work?

Dr. Debbie Lovell-Hawker is a consultant clinical psychologist. She has worked for Oxford University for 9 years and has worldwide experience. She offers training, supervision, assessment and consultation in Member Care. Her area of research and expertise is in debriefing for all types of crisis and trauma.

Middle East Member Care is offering two full day Trauma Debriefing Workshops in Egypt and in Jordan in 2013.

Dates: EGYPT February 18 and 19 and JORDAN (in Amman) February 22 and 23.

Times: 1st Day--9:45 am to 5 pm and 2nd Day--9:45 am to 4 pm.

Costs: EGYPT 225 Eg. pounds and JORDAN 50 JD.

All Member Care workers are warmly invited. Venues to be confirmed later. These events are not residential and only tea and coffee will be provided.

There will be space for about 30 + at each workshop. Don't miss this opportunity to learn from a highly respected expert in this field.
