the COURSE

“Facilitating Relational Learning”

This training will revolutionize your ministry to women, help you understand the power of facilitating group discussion and show you how to make every Bible study you lead a dynamic learning experience for everyone involved.

Over the course of 8 days, with a group of 10 women, you will develop peer support relationships, be personally encouraged in your walk with Christ, and discover how to apply this relational learning style to multiple ministry venues

This training will be held in English.
